Mary Mann: Norfolk's Thomas Hardy
D J Taylor
Friday 17 October, 2-3.30pm

A Victorian Norfolk farmer's wife who, from her home in Shropham, produced some of the finest short stories of the nineteenth century.

D.J. (David) Taylor has spent the last thirty years trying to reawaken interest in Mary Mann's work. Here he explains just why she must be read, a century after her death.

Join him for a talk followed by chat and refreshments
